DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

This farmhouse is a two story, four bay brick structure with the two eastern bays of its front or south elevation recessed beneath a double porch. Attached to the east end is a two story frame addition. The entire northeast corner of the house apparently fell away and has been replaced with modern concrete block. Common bond brick work was used on the side and rear walls.

The main part of the front elevation shows Flemish bonding. Some first story windows have nine over six pane sashes while others have six over six lights. A frame bank barn is also present on the property.
